To the Worthy Electors of the City and Liberty of WESTMINSTER.

A MALICIOUS Report having been induſtriouſly propagated by the Enemies of Lord LINCOLN, that he neglected and refuſed to ſupport the Petition of the Proteſtants of Weſtminſter, his Friends beg Leave to aſſure the Proteſtants of Weſtminſter, that his Lordſhip was at the Time of preſenting, and for ſome Weeks after, abroad in the Service and for the Defence of his Country: They beg Leave further to ſay, that his Lordſhip is a zealous and firm Friend to the Proteſtant Religion, and that he will defend them with the ſame Zeal in the Senate, as he has ever done in the Field, againſt the Enemies of his Country.

Bruton-Street,
9 Sept. 1780.